

Thank you for supporting Helping Paws in your legacy planning! Your gift will impact so many lives and allow us to place more dogs with the people who need them. Below is the information you'll need to add Helping Paws as a beneficiary in your will, as well as a letter of intent to send back to us.

Notifying us of your intent to include us in your will allows us to express our thanks to you now, as well as prepare for our long-term strategic plans. Just complete the form below and send it back to kmorris@helpingpaws.org!

Donating to Helping Paws in your will is a three-step process:

1. Choose your gift type and amount (special gift vs % of assets):

- a. Name Helping Paws as the primary beneficiary for a specific gift, such as a certain amount of money or stock. OR
- b. Allocate a percentage of your total estate to Helping Paws.

2. List Helping Paws as a beneficiary and choose what kind of beneficiary:

- a. Helping Paws
6569 City West Parkway, Eden Prairie, MN 55344
952-988-9359
FIN: 41-1628876
- b. Designate what kind of beneficiary:
 1. Primary beneficiary
 2. Secondary beneficiary
 3. Residuary beneficiary

3. Notify Helping Paws! Complete and return the form below (kmorris@helpingpaws.org) or follow this link to notify us of your gift. Thank you for supporting Helping Paws!

Name: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

Address: _____

Date: _____

I intend to donate (describe your gift): _____

